POLICIES

Barn Dog Inn reserves the right to change your dog's type of boarding/daycare. And or to provide or decline additional services, if necessary to protect the health and well being of your dog, other dogs, and our staff. (Additional charges may apply).

HEALTH:

Barn Dog Inn will contact your veterinarian for records regarding vaccines and flea/tick/heartworm preventions.

VACCINATIONS:

All dogs must be current on vaccinations against rabies and bordetella and vaccinations against or titers for distemper, parvovirus, and leptospirosis. (Note Boarding - only dogs who are not involved in daycare or nature walks may opt out of the leptospirosis vaccination requirement.)

FLEA/TICK/HEARTWORM:

All dogs must be current on flea/tick/heartworm preventions.

If your dog is presenting any symptoms that may suggest illness such as sneezing, coughing, wheezing. Runny eyes or nose, vomiting, lethargy, or diarrhea, please don't bring your dog to daycare, grooming or boarding.

Dog(s) With flea or tick problems will be treated at your expense.

Unspayed females in heat are not accepted. Although we accept intact males and intact females (not in heat) for boarding and daycare. Barn Dog Inn is not responsible for any unplanned breeding. If your dog comes into heat while boarding, we will contact you and you will be expected to pick up your dog immediately. If you are unable to do so you will be charged an extra $30 a day.

All dogs are expected to be picked up or dropped off in the hours that are provided. There is no option for late or early drop offs.

DAYCARE CHECK INS AND OUTS:

All dogs are expected to be picked up or dropped off in the hours that are provided, there are no options for late or early drop offs. If something occurs where you cannot make the pickup time your dog will be boarded and charged a boarding fee. If this were to happen please call us as soon as possible so suitable arrangements for feeding and care can be made.

FOOD AND FEEDING:

Barn Dog Inn provides a premium adult dog diet, but to change in diet and stomach issues we highly suggest bringing in your dog(s) own food in a labeled bag or container. Please pack more than what is needed for your dog's stay incase pick up changes.

MEDICATIONS/SUPPLEMENTS:

Please make sure you bring more than enough medications or supplements to last your dog's stay. We also suggest to bring a few days more than needed just in case of pick up changes

PERSONAL ITEMS:

Do not bring in items for your dog(s) that are valuable or irreplaceable. Barn Dog Inn is not responsible for replacing any destroyed beds, blankets, or toys. But please feel free to bring in whatever you think makes your dog(s) comfortable.

ABANDONED DOG PROCEDURE:

Unless otherwise required by applicable law, if you fail to pick up your dog(s) by the designated time and have failed to make satisfactory alternative arrangements with Barn Dog Inn, Barn dog Inn will continue to provide basic service to ensure the dog's health and safety, and charges will continue to accrue. Barn Dog Inn will make its best effort to contact you using the information you have provided, advising you that if your dog(s) are not picked up within a reasonable time period, your dog(s) will be deemed abandoned and that Barn Dog Inn will deliver the dog(s) the local county animal control or the shelter. You understand that you will lose ownership of your dog(s) under these circumstances. If you fail to pick up your dog(s) for any reason, you release Barn Dog Inn from all further liability and responsibility for your dog(s). You shall remain liable to Barn Dog inn for all unpaid charges, including and without limitation the court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in the collection of such charges.
